1. With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of:

the international application in the language in which it was filed a translation of the international application into _____, which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (Rules 12.3(a) and 23.1(b)).

2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:

a sequence listing

table(s) related to the sequence listing

b. format of material

on paper

in electronic form

c. time of filing/furnishing contained in the international application as filed.

filed together with the international application in electronic form.

furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.

3. In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table(s) relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statement that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or goes beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

4. Additional comments:

Claims 1-50 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(4), and thus and industrial applicability because the subject matter claimed can be made or used in industry.

Claims 1-14 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(2)-(3), because the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest a method of exercising using an actuator at different locations to perform a first exercise at one location and the same exercise at a second location, wherein the first exercise and the second exercise use the same movement mechanism design for moving the actuator.

Claims 1-50 lack an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over juntas. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time that the invention was made that the exercising apparatus and techniques disclosed by juntas includes that structural limitations of the apparatus claims recited in the claims.

Claims 1-50 used to perform the method steps recited in the claims. The apparatus disclosed by juntas includes that structural limitations could be used to perform the method steps recited in the claims. The apparatus disclosed by juntas includes that structural limitations of the apparatus claims recited in the claims.
